the Parnell Commission this morning Sir Charles Russell, counsel for Mr. Parnell, after addressing the Court, said that after full consideration of the situation, Mr. Parnell would not appear, and that he would not be a witness in the case.

In reply to Sir Charles's statement, which his case before the Commission, Presiding Jus-remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.

Messrs. Reid and Lockwood, counsel for other members of Parliament among whom charges were made by the Times, then also withdrew from the case.

BOSTON BOATS OUTFOOTED.

NEW YORK YACHTS WIN IN THE RACES AT MARLBOROUGH.

Commodore Canfield's Sea Fox Easily Defeats the Merit-A Close Race Won by the Quicksilver-A Good Breeze.

MARLBOROUGH, July 16.—Boston yachtsmen had a good day today, as the sterns of New York yachts when they crossed the finish line. The sea fox gave the big schooners a few points in regard to sailing, and the saucy cutter Clara taught the Alga a lesson which she won't soon forget.
It was New York's day. Boston was left out of the leaders, but captured some second prizes. Commodore Canfield of the New-York Club is to-night one of the happiest men in the country, and deservedly so, for his boat won one of the best-contested races ever seen off this shore. Yesterday's blunder in regard to the stake-boats did not prove as disastrous as it had seemed. The wind was not quite so heavy as that of yesterday, but it was a good racing breeze, and bowed the yachts through the water at a merry gallop.
In striking contrast to the steady downpour of rain yesterday was the bright sunshine of today, and thousands of enthusiastic spectators gathered on the shore to witness the races.
The yachtsmen turned out to see the sport.
The Quicksilver, which had been the victor in the first race, was again the victor in the second.
The Alga, which had been the victor in the first race, was again the victor in the second.

MRS. BRADY IS A COMMON SCOLD.

But She Isn't Likely to be Ducked, as the Jersey Law Prescribes.

It took twelve Jersey Jurymen four minutes to consider the evidence of twenty evidence and decide that Mrs. Mary Brady of 268 Van Horn Street, Lafayette, is a common scold. Mrs. Brady was indicted a week ago on the complaint of Mrs. Winifred Doody, her next-door neighbor. Various other neighbors testified that she was a public nuisance. It was the first time in many years that a woman has been indicted for being a common scold, and there was considerable interest manifested in the outcome. Prosecutor Winfield called the case yesterday afternoon. The court room was crowded with Mrs. Brady's neighbors. The lady herself sat behind her counsel, ex-Alderman Hallinger. Her husband was not present. She is 40 years old and weighs 220 pounds. He is about the same age, and weighs about 150 pounds. She looked as though she would have enjoyed scolding the Court. When the jury was drawn she looked at each jurymen and scowled.

"Women don't talk," said one of the jurors.
"The scold is a woman," said another. "That's the reason more are not indicted. In olden times they used to duck them for it, the number of ducks being regulated by the ability of the victim to scold." The Prosecutor said he did not think Mrs. Brady would be ducked even if she was convicted. Mrs. Brady looked relieved.

Mrs. Winifred Doody was the first witness

WHERE WAS MR. HOGAN WHEN THE BALLOON CAME DOWN?

Inventor Campbell's Air Ship Leaves Williamsburg for Somewhere—The Steering Gear Fails to the Ground, and the Ship Turns Into a Balloon.

The big, queer-looking, and queer-fitted air ship, with which Inventor Peter C. Campbell has been experimenting so long, went up to the air yesterday in Williamsburg. It had in it as a navigator Prof. E. D. Hogan of Camden, Mich., a well-known aeronaut.

The air ship and its navigator rose 500 feet above the ground, circled in the air a while, and then shot off toward Coney Island, to the delight of the thousands of people who looked on. At 10 o'clock last night the air ship had not been heard from, but Mr. Campbell declared that it was undoubtedly landed some-

A Sudden Aggravation of His Heart Trouble—Famous as a Brewer.

George Rechtel, the brewer, famous for honest beer, died last evening at his home, on the Richmond road, Staten Island. He had been suffering for two months from heart trouble, but his death was not expected. He was 48 years old.
